PATUX-279 KARL SHIFLETT “Sho Nuff Country”

Texan Shiflett had a trio of good Bluegrass records out on the Rebel label some years ago; he retains a good solid band that includes Billy Hurt Jr. (fiddle) among others. On this recording he features more of a country sound, with western swing touches (mostly in the choice of songs and tunes): WHY BABY WHY, OH LONESOME ME, WALKING DOWN THE LINE, PICK ME UP ON YOUR WAY DOWN, YES SIR THAT’S MY BABY, BRING IT ON DOWN TO MY HOUSE, SALLY WAS A GOOD OLE GIRL, THE WALTZ YOU SAVED FOR ME, etc $ 12.00

BRING IT ON DOWN TO MY HOUSE, SALLY WAS A GOOD OLE GIRL, THE WALTZ

PATUX-278 CORRINA ROSE LOGSTON “Bluegrass Fiddler” A very nicely done fiddle album that has 3 vocals among the 14 instrumentals (two of the tunes are Corrina’s own compositions). Ms. Logston is now living in Nashville after having graduated from Belmont University. Here she is backed by 4 pickers that include Jeremy Stephens and David McLaughlin (on 5 numbers. A good choice of tunes includes CHARLESTON NO. 1, FOGGY MOUNTAIN TOP, WILSON’S HORNPIPE, LAUGHING BOY, SMOKY MOUNTAIN RAG, SOPPIN’ THE GRAVY, SNOWFLAKE BREAKDOWN, etc. $ 12.00
