

TATIANA HARGREAVES

Started Out To Ramble

Patuxent Music

BY HAL COTTRELL

When I first listened to this CD I thought “Wow. How did someone so young become such an accomplished musician?” Tatiana Hargreaves recent release Started Out To Ramble is pure mountain music. There are several songs where she really shines. Tatiana’s strong voice blends nicely with Sarah Jarosz and Emma Beaton. In the liner notes Tatiana says “the most difficult part was choosing the songs,” but she packs lots of music into the 15 songs she selected.

This is a young lady that I expect to see out on the festival circuit very soon. Tracks include Raleigh And Spencer/Dusty Miller, Grub Springs, Say Darling Say, Walk Along John To Kansas, She Left Me Standing On The Mountain, The Demons Lament/Sugar Babe, Shaking Down The Acorns, Lord Ellie, Waverly, Ginseng Sullivan, Margaret Randolph Waltz, Married Man’s Blues, Foreign Lander, Rocky Pallet. BMP
